25                   Date of Detention Hearing: August 8, 2006

26                   The Court, having conducted a detention hearing pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f), and
27                   based upon the factual findings and statement of reasons for detention hereafter set forth,
28                   finds the following:

29                   FINDINGS OF FACT AND STATEMENT OF REASONS FOR DETENTION

30                   (1) Pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3142(e), there is a rebuttable presumption that
31                   defendant is a flight risk and a danger to the community based on the nature of the pending
32                   charges. Application of the presumption is appropriate in this case.

33                   (2) If convicted of the pending charges, the defendant could face a substantial
34                   period of time in prison.

(3) Defendant's background history check reveals a lengthy criminal record, including six felony convictions.

(4) Defendant has had past substance-abuse problems, and it appears that those problems may be ongoing.

(5) Defendant has prior failures to appear, although these are for older charges, and defendant's recent history does not reflect failures to appear.

(6) There are no conditions or combination of conditions, other than detention, that will reasonably assure the appearance of defendant as required, or the safety of the community.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED:

- (1) Defendant shall be detained pending trial and committed to the custody of the Attorney General for confinement in a correction facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal;
  - (2) Defendant shall be afforded reasonable opportunity for private consultation with counsel;
  - (3) On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the government, the person in charge of the corrections facility in which defendant is confined shall deliver the defendant to a United States Marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with a court proceeding; and
  - (4) The Clerk shall direct copies of this Order to counsel for the United States, to counsel for the defendant, to the United States Marshal, and to the United States Pretrial Services Officer.

DATED this 8th day of August, 2006.
